Hey Friends! Want to try out a new restaurant AND help with a fundraising event for Abbey's trip to Costa Rica this summer? The father of one of the kids going on the trip with Abbey recently opened Rumba, a Latin-American restaurant at 620 W. Kirkwood (formerly Café DeLish), and they have agreed to help us in our fundraising efforts.

Next Sunday, December 13th, Rumba will be hosting a special fundraising dinner. A $45.00 ticket will purchase 1 appetizer, 2 entrees, 1 dessert to share, and 2 drinks (alcoholic beverages excluded), and a portion of the cost will be set aside for the trip. Carry-out is also available, but if you can't make it on Sunday they will honor the ticket another time – they just ask that you let me know you won't be there on the designated evening.

If you like the food and want more, we're also offering Rumba bracelets for a $2.00 minimum donation - every time you wear the bracelet to the restaurant 10% of your purchase will be set aside specifically for the student you support (you must let them know at the time of purchase who is for).

Remember it's dine in or carry out. Let Ms. South know if you're interested in tickets and she'll make arrangements to get them to you.
